

Private Emancipation Steps

from RSA INC.

Robinson Crusoe gets stuck on a desert island. The courts presume he is “dead” and turns his estate over to his local government because he died intestate with no next of kin.

The local government goes hog wild and spends against his estate until they can borrow no more.

At the last minute, Robinson comes home and says, “What the ____???”

This is where we are now, folks; - Anna von Reitz - <https://annavonreitz.com/>

No Disclaimer: without prejudice to the living, there can be no such thing as a “disclaimer” because the reading and use of this educational material is by your own free will and choice and each one of us is wise enough to follow our own counsel and responsible for our own actions and outcomes thereof. The choice is ours and ours alone. Either way, there is no obligation. Govern yourself accordingly.

Step 1 - Voter De-Registration

1. See if your name is on the voter's roll; go to the IEC web page to check your voter registration status at: <https://www.elections.org.za/ieonline/home>
2. If you are on the voter's roll and wish to remove yourself then download, print and complete the prescribed REC 6 — APPLICATION FOR DE-REGISTRATION AS VOTER. Note that it has been removed from the IEC website to prevent you from doing so. Luckily we have a copy from 2013. Download it from <https://giftoftruth.wordpress.com/voter-deregistration/>.
3. Go to your local IEC office, quoting the following legislation if asked:

Electoral Act 73 of 1998: <https://www.gov.za/documents/electoral-act>

10 Applications for de-registration as a voter

- A registered voter may apply for de-registration as a voter in the prescribed manner.
- On receipt of an application for de-registration as a voter, the chief electoral officer must remove the applicant's name from the voter's roll.

This means Chief electoral officers are obligated to comply according to the above.

11 Amendments to voter's roll by chief electoral officer

- The electoral officer must-
- Change the registration details of a voter, if the chief electoral officer is satisfied that the details reflected in the voter's roll is incorrect or have changed; or
- De-register a voter, if the chief electoral officer is satisfied that the voter does not qualify or no longer qualifies for registration.

Some people are reporting that their names are still on the roll even after having de-registered; then it's time to send them a notice of their obligation to comply.

12 Notification by chief electoral officer

- The chief electoral officer must notify, in the prescribed manner, a person-
- Who has been de-registered as a voter in terms of section 11;

Demand to be notified that you have been deregistered in the prescribed manner; find out what the latest prescribed manner is? They are regularly changing the rules...

13 Appeal against decisions and steps of chief electoral officer

- A person mentioned in section 12(1) who feels aggrieved by a decision or step taken by a chief electoral officer in terms of section 8, 9 or 11, may appeal to the Commission against that decision or step in the prescribed manner.
- The Commission, in the prescribed manner, must consider and decide the appeal and notify the appellant and chief electoral officer of the decision.

Appeal your non-deregistration with the Commission; ask your local electoral office for the forms to appeal their inaction to remove your 'person' from the voter's roll; give them a month and check again if you have been removed.

Objections and appeals:

Select your province at the following link then contact your provincial office to find out why you have not been removed from the Voter's Roll:

<http://www.elections.org.za/content/About-Us/Contact-Us/>

Done the above and still not removed?

If you have already done the above steps and the IEC has still not removed you from the voter's roll then kick up a fuss with the National Office:

Step 2 – Completing Documents

The list of Documents for Private Emancipation from RSA INC is:

1. Recording Cover Sheet
2. Deed of Reconveyance
3. Certificate of Assumed Name
4. Act of Expatriation
5. Cancellation of Power of Attorney
6. Claim of Life & Estate
7. Baby Deed of Land Recording [only if you have children]

8. Proof of Service

Download all the above documents from:

<http://giftoftruth.wordpress.com/emancipation/>

Feel free to do further background reading from this website too. Inform yourself.

Completing:

- Open the word documents and replace the parts in red with your details;
- Amend the part in red wo/man to “man” or “woman”;
- Replace Mary Jane Doe with your Full Names;
- NB!!! — keep the format of your full names in the same sentence case as in the document; lower case, Sentence Case or UPPER CASE.

Different “stiles” of names were used in Ancient Roman Civil Law as a means of distinguishing between free men, bondservants, and slaves:

“mary jane doe” stile indicates an un-incorporated free woman;

“Mary Jane Doe” indicates an incorporated bondservant, and,

“MARY JANE DOE” indicates a slave; but, also a corporation, ship, vassal; vessel;

This still applies today. The purpose of the documents is to separate you a living soul from your legal fiction paper “person”. You are a “people” NOT a “person”. You are a “national” not a “citizen”. We should all be writing our names in small letters as it means no loss of status.

- Replace the address in red with your address;
- Where it says [District/State] either replace with the District you live in; OR, the name of your free and independent state e.g.: Free State, Transvaal, ZAR, Zuidland or other.
- Where you see “South African Republic” you can add the name of your free and independent State before it, if you belong to one. E.g. Free State, South African Republic.
- Where you see brackets not in red, such as around the postal code, LEAVE the brackets, just change the postal code; brackets are there for jurisdiction purposes;
- Complete the dates;
- Remove the following highlighted line from the document:
(signature with red-ink right thumbprint touching it; remove this line before printing)
- Once completed, change all text colours to black;
- Once all documents are completed you may now print 1 set of documents;

- Sign your documents and make a red-ink right hand thumbprint touching your signature but, not obscuring it. You can use red food colouring.
- Get 2 witnesses to write their full names and to sign your documents.

The Proof of Service you will complete before a Commissioner of Oaths and keep so you only need to print 1 copy;

Step 3 – Posting Documents

You now have a completed, signed and witnessed set of documents as listed above;
Next, make 3 sets of copies of each of the documents;
You only need 1 copy of the Proof of Service;
Now, you have 4 sets of documents including the original; you will keep the originals;
Get the copies certified with a Commissioner of Oaths.

One set is going to Master of the High Court of your Province.

One set is going to National Treasury.

One set is going to Commissioner for SARS.

Get 4 A4 size envelopes and address 1 of 3 envelopes

You may as well use a Postmaster as a Commissioner of Oaths because you also need to buy 3 registered mail stickers in order to complete the Proof of Service;

Decide which sticker is to go on which envelope and then write the relevant RD ZA registered mail number onto the Proof of Service. Do not date or sign it until you are in the presence of one of the Commissioner of Oaths.

To: Office of National Treasury, SARS and Master of High Court of your province.
Find details below.

From: Your Full Names
c/o Your Address

NB! Using “in care of” (c/o) as above does not give them jurisdiction over you.

Please check online that the address and contact details are correct as it changes all the time. Do not seal the A4 envelopes yet; do that when doing the Proof of Service before a Commissioner of Oaths.

Proof of Service

A Proof of Service provides proof that you have properly served your documents on the relevant agents of RSA Inc. This is the most basic evidence that the agents were properly notified in a dispute and makes it legally binding. No court will accept a case unless there is a proper proof ("affidavit" in their language) of service. You will use it as evidence if RSA Inc. agents try and drag you into their courts.

NEVER make oaths! Rather make "affirmations".

Matthew 6:33 Again, you have heard that it has been said by them of old time, You shall not forswear yourself, but shall perform to the Lord your oaths. 34 But I say to you, Swear not at all, neither by heaven, for it is Gods throne: 35 Nor by the earth, for it is his footstool: neither by Jerusalem, for it is the city of the great king. 36 Neither shall you swear by your head, because you cannot make one hair white or black. 37 But let your communication be Yes, yes: No, no: For whatsoever is more than these, comes of evil. [KJV 1611]

Affirmations are verbal promises to tell the truth. An oath typically symbolises a promise to a particular god, deity or religion, whilst an affirmation does not.; an affirmation has the same effect as an oath, and can be made where the one affirming has no religious beliefs or believes in separation of church and state.

Affidavits are used in BAR court proceedings and for other purposes authorised by their commercial law. Proof of Service is used in common law courts.

Persons authorised to receive affidavits:

Affidavits may be made and taken before persons such as:

- A judge or associate to a judge
- A justice of the peace or a bail justice
- A registrar or deputy registrar of any Court or Tribunal
- A member or former member of any level of parliament
- A public notary
- A legal practitioner
- A police officer
- A post master

After dating and signing your Proof of Service in their presence, the authorised person is to list his or her name and occupation, and sign the affidavit in the space provided below; If the authorised person has an official stamp, it should be stamped on the space provided below; If your affidavit is more than one page long, you and the authorised person must both sign the bottom right-hand corner of every page.

Now you can finally seal all envelopes in their presence and post them. Keep the Affidavit of Service in a very safe place.

Tracking the Registered Mail

It is advisable to keep track of the registered mail. Once it has been collected and has not been returned within 30 days it stands as being served and accepted and as truth in commerce.

In Closing

Well, that was a real pain to go through and you should never have been entrapped and obligated by your public servant employees in the first place but, now you have taken action to sever the presumption that you are volunteering to act as a federal CITIZEN and nobody can say otherwise. From now on, the "PERSON" is the Minister of Finance's problem and you are indemnified against any further claims, debts or complaints related to "IT". If, the minister didn't have knowledge of what his predecessors were up to then he surely will have now. ignorance of the law (in this case commercial law: Uniform Law for Bills of Exchange and Promissory Notes; Uniform Commercial Code; BILLS OF EXCHANGE ACT 34 OF 1964 etc.) is no excuse. Now your employees can no longer presume anything about your political status, except that it is private and that you are operating lawfully and without any obligation to them or their organizations. In fact, they are your employees and obligated to you.

Without malice aforethought; non-assumpsit;

In peace; brother-thomas.
